Oh, darling Lennie, precious jewel, Thon hast left this sin-cursed world; In the spirit's home of brightness, Thou hast joined that happy band,

Now our home is filled with sadness, And our hearts are full of woe, As we see the vacant places— Tears unbidden still will flow.

'Till our pilgrimage is o'er,'
Then with joy we hope to meet him
On that bright and happy shore. A gentle voice has called him Unto his Savior's breast, And safe within those loving arms

Your precious Lennie rests. Then, parents, wish not your Lennie back, But meekly say thy will be done; That little gem was only lent— It still belongs to Ged.
